

Impact Association Management welcomes the American Society of Interior Designers
California San Diego

April 16, 2020, Madison, Wisconsin –Impact Association Management (Impact) is excited to announce the signing of our fifth chapter of the American Society of Interior Designers, California San Diego as our newest client.

“ASID San Diego is delighted to be working with Impact AMC. Our goal is to support our dedicated volunteers by allowing their contribution of time and effort to be worthwhile by supporting them with an amazing administrative team. We look forward to leveraging their expertise in organizing and managing all aspects of chapter administrative tasks and help us transform our organization into an efficient, thriving chapter” states Bertha Hernandez, ASID California San Diego President.

“Our team has been working with ASID chapters since 2016. We understand the needs of ASID and their membership and are excited to expand that knowledge to a new chapter. The on-boarding process with ASID California San Diego has been incredibly smooth and we can already tell this is a hard-working board that is open to our ideas. This combination will make for a very successful partnership.”, adds Jodi Fisher, CEO, Impact Association Management.
